JENNIFER LUNSKI, ESQ. JOINS WOODRUFF-SAWYER & CO.

San Francisco, California – November 24, 2008 – Woodruff-Sawyer & Co. announced today that Jennifer Lunski, Esq. has joined their firm as Account Executive-Compliance Services. In this role, Ms. Lunski will consult directly with the firm's employee benefits clients on all matters of compliance and lead all training and education initiatives.

Prior to joining Woodruff-Sawyer, Ms. Lunski worked as a senior investigator at the United States Department of Labor, Employee Benefits Security Administration in San Francisco. In that role, she investigated a broad spectrum of company employee benefit plans to identify, research and resolve civil and criminal violations of ERISA, COBRA and HIPAA rules and regulations committed by employers, plan fiduciaries, plan administrators and service providers. Her case focus included profit sharing plans, employee, employer and self-funded health care plans, Davis-Bacon plans, 401(k)s, employee stock option plans, defined benefit plans, dental plans, cafeteria plans, multiple employer welfare arrangements and Taft-Hartley plans.

"We are very happy that Jennifer has joined Woodruff-Sawyer," said Jenn Walsh, Employee Benefits Practice Leader. "Her unique background and expertise in legislative and regulatory matters will bring a new dimension to our practice. She will be an invaluable asset in expanding and enhancing benefits services for our clients. "
