Matt Healy Joins Woodruff-Sawyer & Co.

San Francisco, California – April 8, 2010 – Woodruff-Sawyer & Co. announced today that Matt Healy, JD, has joined their firm as Vice President, Executive Benefits and Succession Planning. In his role, Matt will be working directly with clients to protect and preserve their personal and business assets.

For over 20 years, Matt has been using his insurance and legal expertise to help clients make informed decisions regarding complex estate, business and insurance planning issues. Throughout his career, Matt has designed objective and efficient alternatives to preserve and transfer his clients' estates to future generations, particularly those estates that included business interests and real estate holdings. Before joining Woodruff-Sawyer, Matt was a Regional Specialist at TIME Financial Services.

"We are so pleased that Matt will be joining our team", said Jennifer Walsh, Employee Benefits Practice Leader at Woodruff-Sawyer. "With a background as both an insurance specialist and an attorney, Matt brings a unique and valuable expertise to Woodruff-Sawyer clients. He takes a comprehensive approach to thoroughly understand our clients' objectives and will provide unique solutions for their risk management and wealth protection needs."
